

Dataram Memory Evaluation Program

Challenged

by your management to reduce your It budget?

Uncertain

if more memory will resolve your performance issues?

Apprehensive

about using non-OEM memory?

Let Dataram prove how our memory upgrades deliver reliability, compatibility and substantial cost savings with a totally FREE, no obligation offer for you to evaluate our memory in your system—for up to 60 days!

Your dedicated Dataram Sales Representative will work with you to identify your specific memory needs that will improve the performance of your application. He/She will:

- Expedite the Dataram evaluation memory to you
- Offer to Trade-In/Trade-Up your existing memory
- Arrange for FREE installation and removal if required
- Provide you FREE access to a technical support expert
- Ensure that you are completely satisfied

Use Dataram memory in your development system for up to 60 days with no obligation to purchase. If, at the end of your pre-determined try period, you are not completely satisfied with the performance and quality of our memory, simply return the memory to us.

Dataram has over 40 years of experience designing, manufacturing and testing memory products. More than 60 of the Fortune 100 companies have used Dataram memory to save up to 50% off OEM memory prices. No other memory company in the world can match our experience as an independent memory supplier. And adding Dataram memory to your system will not void the system or service warranty!
